THE TRACK.

ST YVES WINS MARATHON DEBUT.
New York, April 4.—St. Yves, the French runner, lost to the Indian in the Marathon race at the Polo Grounds on Saturday, winning the big professional event, once before, in 1937, when he was 30 years of age. He was 36 years of age when he won the Olympic Marathon at London, was 37 years of age when he won the London Marathon, and was 38 years of age when he won the London Marathon.

Although St. Yves did not come anywhere near his time of 2:22 made when he won the Olympic race in a special trial, he was 38 years of age.

set up a part of 2:40:35, which is less than Longmont, Dorado and Hayes have ever made the distance. Longmont before Shrub, the Englishman, who surprised his friends by keeping close to St. Yves during the greater part of the race. But the Marathon distance is a bit too far for him. Dorado's time was 2:43:37. Maloney was 2:45:20 and Hayes was last. St. Yves finished a mile and a half ahead of the other runners. He was in the lead at the 10 mile mark. He was in the lead at the 10 mile mark. He was in the lead at the 10 mile mark.

The Frenchman was an unknown quantity in this country, but had a record of five victories and six defeats. He was defeated by White in a Marathon race in Scotland. He was 38 years of age when he won the London Marathon. He was 38 years of age when he won the London Marathon.
